General Information

Financial accounts held by certain non-resident entities, and certain entities controlled by non-resident individuals and/or U.S. persons, have to be reported to the CRA.

Account information reported to the CRA is shared with the government of a foreign jurisdiction in which an entity or one of its controlling persons is a resident of for tax purposes when Canada has an information exchange agreement with that jurisdiction. The CRA shares account information with the U.S. Internal Revenue Service if an entity is a specified U.S. person or one of its controlling persons is a U.S. citizen or resident.

To find out if the financial institution gave account information to the CRA and what information the institution gave, you may ask the institution. To find out if information has been shared with the U.S. or another jurisdiction, you may contact the CRA

How to fill out this Section 8

Identification of account holder

Use Section 2 to identify the account holder. Sometimes the address of an account holder may be different from its mailing address. If this is the case, give both addresses.

The account holder is the person listed or identified as the holder of the financial account by the financial institution that maintains the account. But, when a person other than a financial institution holds a financial account for the benefit of or for another person as an agent, custodian, nominee, signatory, investment advisor, or intermediary, they are not considered the account holder. In such cases, the account holder is the person for whom the account is held.

If a trust or an estate is listed as the holder of a financial account, the trust or the estate is the account holder, not the trustee or the liquidator. Similarly, if a partnership is listed as the holder of a financial account, the partnership is the account holder, not the partners in the partnership.

An account holder also includes any person who can access the cash value or designate a beneficiary under a cash value insurance contract or an annuity contract.

The policy/account number is the number your financial institution assigned to the entity. For example, enter the number assigned to the entity (such as a bank account number or an insurance policy number) in this box. If you do not have such a number, leave this box blank.

Declaration of tax residence

Use Section 8 to identify the entity's tax residence and taxpayer identification number. If the entity does not have such a number, give the reason.

Generally, an entity will be a tax resident of a jurisdiction if, under the laws of that jurisdiction, it pays or should be paying tax there because of its domicile, residence, place of management or incorporation, or a similar criterion. For this form:

- a) a partnership, a limited partnership, or a similar legal arrangement is considered to reside in the jurisdiction where its place of management is located;
- b) a trust is considered to reside in the jurisdiction where its place of management and control is located; and
- c) an entity that is a "United States person" is a tax resident of the United States.

Entities that are tax residents in more than one jurisdiction can rely on the tie-breaker rules in tax conventions (when they apply) to resolve cases of dual tax residence. For more information on tax residency, talk to your tax adviser or go to oecd.org/tax/automatic-exchange/crs-implementation-and-assistance/tax-residency/#d.en.347760.

A taxpayer identification number, often referred to by its abbreviation TIN, is a unique combination of letters or numbers that a jurisdiction assigns to an individual or entity. The jurisdiction uses the TIN in administering its tax laws to identify the individual or entity. Enter the TIN in its official format. For more details about acceptable TINs, go to oecd.org/tax/automatic-exchange/crs-implementation-and-assistance/tax-identification-numbers/#d.en.347759.

Reasons that fall under "Reason 3: Other reason" for not having a TIN include not being eligible to receive one. However, if you are eligible to receive a TIN but you do not have one, you have 90 days to apply for one through your jurisdiction of residence. You have 15 days after you receive it to give it to your financial institution.

Entity classification

Use Section 8 to identify what type of entity the account holder is.

In Item 1, identify if the entity is a financial institution and whether it has a global intermediary identification number (GIIN). A GIIN is a unique identifier the Internal Revenue Service of the United States issues to financial institutions. Reasons for not having a GIIN include being a deemed compliant foreign financial institution or a non-participating foreign financial institution.

A financial institution is a custodial institution, a depository institution, an investment entity, or a specified insurance company. An entity that is a tax resident of Canada can classify itself as a financial institution only if it is a Canadian financial institution. However, an entity that is a prescribed non-reporting financial institution in Canada can classify itself as a financial institution even if it is not a Canadian financial institution.

Use Item 2 to determine whether the financial institution is a type of investment entity that needs to identify its controlling persons in the Annex. An entity has to fill out the Annex if it resides in a non-participating jurisdiction and is an entity described in paragraph b) of the definition of investment entity.

Use Item 3 and 4 to determine if an entity, other than a financial institution, has to identify its controlling persons in the Annex.

Certification

Make sure you complete the Annex where applicable, and fill in and sign Item 5 before you give this form to your Canadian financial institution.

Annex – Controlling persons

Use the Annex to identify the controlling persons of the entity.

Controlling persons of an entity are the natural persons who exercise direct or indirect control over the entity. Generally, whether a person exercises control over an entity is determined in a way similar to how beneficial owners are identified for Canada's Proceeds of Crime (Money Laundering) and Terrorist Financing Act.

For example, a person is generally considered to control a corporation if they directly or indirectly own or control at least 25% of the corporation. If no individual is named as controlling the corporation, the director or senior official of the corporation is considered the corporation's controlling person.

In the case of a trust, controlling persons include its settlors, trustees, protectors (if any), beneficiaries (or class of beneficiaries), and any other natural persons exercising ultimate effective control over the trust.

A settlor, trustee, protector, or beneficiary of a trust may be an entity. If so, to determine the trust's controlling persons you have to look through the entity's chain of control or ownership to identify the natural persons exercising ultimate effective control over the entity. You then have to report those you find as controlling persons of the trust. Financial institutions may apply this requirement in a way similar to how beneficial owners are identified for Canada's Proceeds of Crime (Money Laundering) and Terrorist Financing Act.

In the case of a legal arrangement other than a trust, controlling persons are persons in equivalent or similar positions.

Enter the description that best describes the type of controlling person:

- 1) Direct owner of a corporation or other legal person
- 2) Indirect owner of a corporation or other legal person (through an intermediary)
- 3) Director or senior official of a corporation or other legal person
- 4) Settlor of a trust
- 5) Trustee of a trust
- 6) Protector of a trust
- 7) Beneficiary of a trust
- 8) Other controlling person of a trust
- 9) Equivalent to a settlor of a legal arrangement other than a trust (e.g. partnership)
- 10) Equivalent to a trustee of a legal arrangement other than a trust (e.g. partnership)
- 11) Equivalent to a protector of a legal arrangement other than a trust (e.g. partnership)
- 12) Equivalent to a beneficiary of a legal arrangement other than a trust (e.g. partnership)
- 13) Other controlling person of a legal arrangement other than a trust (e.g. partnership)

 - ii) It does not have to pay income tax in its jurisdiction of residence.
 - iii) It has no shareholders or members who have a proprietary or beneficial interest in its income or assets.

 - v) The laws of the entity's jurisdiction of residence that apply or the entity's formation documents require that, as soon as the entity is liquidated or dissolved, all of its assets will be distributed to a governmental entity or other non-profit entity. Or, they will be handed over to the government of the entity's jurisdiction of residence or one of its political subdivisions.
- i) The entity is organized in a United States territory and all of the owners of the payee are tax residents of that United States territory.

2. Representations, Warranties and Covenants of the Trust. The Trust represents and warrants to the Investor that:
 - (a) Creation. 3. Representations, Warranties and Covenants of the Investor. The Investor hereby represents and warrants to and covenants and agrees with the Manager that:
 - (a) Legal Capacity. If the Investor is a corporation, the Investor is a duly incorporated and subsisting corporation with full power and authority to execute and deliver and perform its obligations under this Subscription Agreement, the execution and delivery of each of this Subscription Agreement and the performance by the Investor of its obligations hereunder have been duly authorized by all corporate action required by the Investor, and this Subscription Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Investor and is a legal, valid and binding obligation of, enforceable against, the Investor.  - (i) the Investor is restricted from using most of the civil remedies available under the Securities Laws;

 - (ii) the Investor may not receive information that would otherwise be required to be provided to him under the Securities Laws; and

- (iii) the Trust is relieved from certain obligations that would otherwise apply under the Securities Laws.
- (c) Offering Memorandum. If applicable, the Investor has received an offering memorandum from the Manager with respect to the Investor's purchase of the Units.
- (d) Purchasing as Principal. The Investor is:
 - (i) purchasing the Units, and will acquire the Units, when issued, as principal, for investment and not with a view to resale or distribution; or

In addition, the Investor is aware of and has been independently advised as to the applicable restrictions on the resale of Units imposed by securities laws in the jurisdiction in which the Investor resides. The Investor is aware of the risks and other characteristics of the Units and of the fact that the Investor may not be able to resell the Units, except in accordance with constating documents of the Trust and the applicable securities laws. The Trust is not under any obligation to qualify the resale of the Units under a prospectus or assist the Investor in complying with any exemption from the prospectus requirement or resale restrictions set out under applicable securities laws. The Investor acknowledges that any certificates representing the Units will carry a legend stating:

The Units are not being purchased by the Investor as a result of any material information concerning the Trust that has not been publicly disclosed and the Investor's decision to tender this offer to acquire the Units has not been made as a result of any verbal or written representation as to fact or otherwise made by or on behalf of the Trust or any other person. The Investor understands that the purchase of the Units involves risk and should only be considered by persons who can bear the loss of their entire investment.

- (l) Status of Investor. The Investor has such knowledge, skill and experience in business, financial and investment matters so that the Investor is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of an investment in the Units. To the extent necessary, the Investor has retained, at his, her or its own expense, and relied upon, appropriate professional advice regarding the investment, tax and legal merits and consequences of this subscription and owning the Units.
- (m) Not a U.S. Person. The Investor is not a U.S. person (as such term is defined in Regulation S under the Securities Act of 1933 (the "1933 Act")), which definition includes an individual resident in the United States and an estate or trust of which any executor, administrator or trustee is a U.S. person, and is not purchasing the Units for the account or benefit of a U.S. person, and it was not offered the Units in the United States, and did not execute or deliver this agreement or deliver payment for the Units in the United States.

To the best of the Investor's knowledge (i) none of the subscription funds to be provided by the Investor (A) have been or will be derived from or related to any activity that is deemed criminal under the law of Canada, the United States of America, or any other jurisdiction, or (B) are being tendered on behalf of a person or entity who has not been identified to the Subscriber, and (ii) it shall promptly notify the Trust if the Investor discovers that any of such representations ceases to be true, and to provide the Trust with appropriate information in connection therewith.

YOU ARE BUYING EXEMPT MARKET SECURITIES

They are called exempt market securities because two parts of securities law do not apply to them. If an issuer wants to sell exempt market securities to you:

- the issuer does not have to give you a prospectus (a document that describes the investment in detail and gives you some legal protections), and
- the securities do not have to be sold by an investment dealer registered with a securities regulatory authority.

There are restrictions on your ability to resell exempt market securities. Exempt market securities are more risky than other securities.

YOU WILL RECEIVE AN OFFERING MEMORANDUM

Read the offering memorandum carefully because it has important information about the issuer and its securities. Keep the offering memorandum because you have rights based on it. Talk to a lawyer for details about these rights.

THE SECURITIES YOU ARE BUYING ARE NOT LISTED

The securities you are buying are not listed on any stock exchange, and they may never be listed. You may never be able to sell these securities.

THE ISSUER OF YOUR SECURITIES IS A NON-REPORTING ISSUER

A non-reporting issuer does not have to publish financial information or notify the public of changes in its business. You may not receive ongoing information about this issuer.

For more information on the exempt market, call your local securities regulatory authority. If you live in British Columbia, contact the British Columbia Securities Commission at (604) 899-6500, (outside the local area, call toll-free 1-800-373-6393), or visit its website at www.bcsc.bc.ca.
