5. INVESTOR AND RISK PROFILE

CHOOSING A MORTGAGE INVESTMENT FUND - When choosing a mortgage investment fund, important considerations are the entity's risk tolerance, risk capacity and return requirements. These considerations result in a trade-off since most entities want a high return with low risk. Unfortunately, a higher return usually means higher risk. Because of this conflict, choosing a mortgage investment fund is often a struggle between the risk an entity is willing to assume and the return an entity needs to achieve for its financial goals. As such, the following questionnaire will help us assess your risk tolerance, risk capacity and return requirements so that we can work with you to help assess your suitability of this investment. Please refer to the Offering Memorandum which outlines the typical risks associated with this type of investment.

RISK ASSESSMENT - The following questions will be used to gauge your risk tolerance, risk capacity and possibly, provide a counterbalance to the return you will need to achieve in your mortgage investment fund. There are no right or wrong answers in this questionnaire – please check ☒ each answer which best indicates how you feel.

General Information

Financial accounts held by certain non-resident entities, and certain entities controlled by non-resident individuals and/or U.S. persons, have to be reported to the CRA.

Account information reported to the CRA is shared with the government of a foreign jurisdiction in which an entity or one of its controlling persons is a resident of for tax purposes when Canada has an information exchange agreement with that jurisdiction. The CRA shares account information with the U.S. Internal Revenue Service if an entity is a specified U.S. person or one of its controlling persons is a U.S. citizen or resident.

To find out if the financial institution gave account information to the CRA and what information the institution gave, you may ask the institution. To find out if information has been shared with the U.S. or another jurisdiction, you may contact the CRA

How to fill out this Section 7

Identification of account holder

Use Section 2 to identify the account holder. Sometimes the address of an account holder may be different from its mailing address. If this is the case, give both addresses.

The account holder is the person listed or identified as the holder of the financial account by the financial institution that maintains the account. But, when a person other than a financial institution holds a financial account for the benefit of or for another person as an agent, custodian, nominee, signatory, investment advisor, or intermediary, they are not considered the account holder. In such cases, the account holder is the person for whom the account is held.

If a trust or an estate is listed as the holder of a financial account, the trust or the estate is the account holder, not the trustee or the liquidator. Similarly, if a partnership is listed as the holder of a financial account, the partnership is the account holder, not the partners in the partnership.

An account holder also includes any person who can access the cash value or designate a beneficiary under a cash value insurance contract or an annuity contract.

The policy/account number is the number your financial institution assigned to the entity. For example, enter the number assigned to the entity (such as a bank account number or an insurance policy number) in this box. If you do not have such a number, leave this box blank.

Declaration of tax residence

Use Section 7 to identify the entity's tax residence and taxpayer identification number. If the entity does not have such a number, give the reason.

Generally, an entity will be a tax resident of a jurisdiction if, under the laws of that jurisdiction, it pays or should be paying tax there because of its domicile, residence, place of management or incorporation, or a similar criterion. For this form a partnership, a limited partnership, or a similar legal arrangement is considered to reside in the jurisdiction where its place of management is located;

- b) a trust is considered to reside in the jurisdiction where its place of management and control is located; and
- c) an entity that is a "United States person" is a tax resident of the United States.

Entities that are tax residents in more than one jurisdiction can rely on the tie-breaker rules in tax conventions (when they apply) to resolve cases of dual tax residence. For more information on tax residency, talk to your tax adviser or go to oecd.org/tax/automatic-exchange/crs-implementation-and-assistance/tax-residency/#d.en.347760.

A taxpayer identification number, often referred to by its abbreviation TIN, is a unique combination of letters or numbers that a jurisdiction assigns to an individual or entity. The jurisdiction uses the TIN in administering its tax laws to identify the individual or entity. Enter the TIN in its official format. For more details about acceptable TINs, go to oecd.org/tax/automatic-exchange/crs-implementation-and-assistance/tax-identification-numbers/#d.en.347759.

Reasons that fall under "Reason 3: Other reason" for not having a TIN include not being eligible to receive one. However, if you are eligible to receive a TIN but you do not have one, you have 90 days to apply for one through your jurisdiction of residence. You have 15 days after you receive it to give it to your financial institution.

Entity classification

Use Section 7 to identify what type of entity the account holder is.

In Item 1, identify if the entity is a financial institution and whether it has a global intermediary identification number (GIIN). A GIIN is a unique identifier the Internal Revenue Service of the United States issues to financial institutions. Reasons for not having a GIIN include being a deemed compliant foreign financial institution or a non-participating foreign financial institution.

A financial institution is a custodial institution, a depository institution, an investment entity, or a specified insurance company. An entity that is a tax resident of Canada can classify itself as a financial institution only if it is a Canadian financial institution. However, an entity that is a prescribed non-reporting financial institution in Canada can classify itself as a financial institution even if it is not a Canadian financial institution.

Use Item 2 to determine whether the financial institution is a type of investment entity that needs to identify its controlling persons in the Annex. An entity has to fill out the Annex if it resides in a non-participating jurisdiction and is an entity described in paragraph b) of the definition of investment entity.

Use Item 3 and 4 to determine if an entity, other than a financial institution, has to identify its controlling persons in the Annex.

Certification

Make sure you complete the Annex where applicable, and fill in and sign Item 5 before you give this form to your Canadian financial institution.

Annex – Controlling persons

Use the Annex to identify the controlling persons of the entity.

Controlling persons of an entity are the natural persons who exercise direct or indirect control over the entity. Generally, whether a person exercises control over an entity is determined in a way similar to how beneficial owners are identified for Canada's Proceeds of Crime (Money Laundering) and Terrorist Financing Act.

For example, a person is generally considered to control a corporation if they directly or indirectly own or control at least 25% of the corporation. If no individual is named as controlling the corporation, the director or senior official of the corporation is considered the corporation's controlling person.

In the case of a trust, controlling persons include its settlors, trustees, protectors (if any), beneficiaries (or class of beneficiaries), and any other natural persons exercising ultimate effective control over the trust.

A settlor, trustee, protector, or beneficiary of a trust may be an entity. If so, to determine the trust's controlling persons you have to look through the entity's chain of control or ownership to identify the natural persons exercising ultimate effective control over the entity. You then have to report those you find as controlling persons of the trust. Financial institutions may apply this requirement in a way similar to how beneficial owners are identified for Canada's Proceeds of Crime (Money Laundering) and Terrorist Financing Act.

In the case of a legal arrangement other than a trust, controlling persons are persons in equivalent or similar positions.

Enter the description that best describes the type of controlling person:

- 1) Direct owner of a corporation or other legal person
- 2) Indirect owner of a corporation or other legal person (through an intermediary)
- 3) Director or senior official of a corporation or other legal person
- 4) Settlor of a trust
- 5) Trustee of a trust
- 6) Protector of a trust
- 7) Beneficiary of a trust
- 8) Other controlling person of a trust
- 9) Equivalent to a settlor of a legal arrangement other than a trust (e.g. partnership)
- 10) Equivalent to a trustee of a legal arrangement other than a trust (e.g. partnership)
- 11) Equivalent to a protector of a legal arrangement other than a trust (e.g. partnership)
- 12) Equivalent to a beneficiary of a legal arrangement other than a trust (e.g. partnership)
- 13) Other controlling person of a legal arrangement other than a trust (e.g. partnership)

8. TERMS OF ENGAGEMENT

The following terms set out the relationship between Trez Capital Fund Management Limited Partnership ("Trez") and the applicant(s) named above (the "Client") and are intended to disclose any information that would be important to you with respect to your investment account.

CONFIDENTIALITY

Any information that the Client provides to Trez will be kept confidential by Trez. Trez will only disclose information to comply with any regulatory or legal requirements.

The New Account Application to help us understand your personal situation and your financial investment goals. We must gather relevant information about assets, liabilities and other details about your income tax and estate tax situation. Before we accept any investment from you, we are obligated to take reasonable steps to determine whether that investment is suitable for you.

We consider your information 'confidential' and we confirm that it will be used solely in connection with your proposed investment in one of the Trez funds or in a direct mortgage investment offered by Trez (the "Investment") and no information will be disclosed to any third-party without your prior written consent, unless as required by law.

PRODUCTS – INVESTMENT ALLOCATION POLICY

You are free to invest in any financial products as per your choice if you qualify as per regulatory requirements. Trez offers several funds, which may only be purchased through registered dealers.

Trez receives fees from each of the funds, as set out in the relevant Offering Memorandum, or for direct mortgage investments, in the relevant mortgage participation and servicing agreement.

Each trade should be allocated fairly to each fund managed by Trez or its affiliates, to the extent they wish to participate, applying the following policy:

1. Each fund which could participate in a mortgage investment must be identified.
2. Mortgage investments must be allocated fairly.
3. Fees and expenses must be allocated fairly.

If the availability of any particular mortgage investment is limited, and that mortgage investment is appropriate for the investment objective of more than one fund, that mortgage investment will be allocated on an equitable basis.

Not all mortgage investments may be appropriate for all funds. Certain funds are designed to have different risk tolerances, and have different investment policies. Reasonable allocation of the same mortgage investment amongst funds may be determined by an evaluation of the cash position of each fund, the effect or risk and liquidity, and the general composition of the funds.

As a result, allocation of mortgage investments to Trez managed funds is a multi-step process, as follows:

1. All funds will be considered in accordance with each fund's investment criteria and the funds that do not meet the investment parameters of a particular mortgage investment will be excluded from consideration as a recipient portion of that investment. For example:
 - a. if the loan is part of a joint venture where investors are to participate in ownership of real property, certain funds cannot invest;
 - b. Trez will not place certain funds into an investment in an unregistered mortgage;
 - c. certain funds have restrictions on the percentage a particular mortgage can represent of the fund's mortgage portfolio.
2. All funds that are identified as qualified recipients of a particular mortgage investment will be allocated a portion of the investment based on available cash at that time.

3. In the event that more than one fund is identified as a qualified recipient with available cash, Trez will take all the necessary steps to ensure that mortgage investments are fairly and proportionately allocated amongst the qualified funds. To ensure fairness:
 - a. Trez will look back at recent investment allocations, to ensure that funds which were unable to participate in past investments will participate in current investments;
 - b. consideration will be given to sharing mortgage investments proportionally having regard to the optimization of asset and geographic diversification of mortgage assets;
 - c. administrative efficiencies will be taken into account, so that, for example, a small loan will only be shared by a small number of funds.

On loan pay downs, Trez will attempt to pay down the investment of each account proportionately. However, Trez may choose to repay syndicated investors or internal companies first and have the funds remain invested in the loan, as this keeps the funds invested. If Trez determines there is a higher risk to remaining in an investment, other considerations may apply.

In order to assist Trez to determine the suitability of an Investment for you, we ask that each Client answer the questions provided above in the section titled "Investor & Risk Profile."

RISK FACTORS

There are certain types of risk that a Client should consider when making an investment in Trez such as liquidity and marketability. An investment in a Trez product involves a number of risk factors and is suitable only for investors who are aware of the risks inherent in mortgage investments and who have the ability and willingness to accept the risk of loss of their invested capital and who have no immediate need for liquidity. There is no assurance of any return on an investor's investment.

Prospective investors should consult with their own independent professional legal, tax, investment and financial advisors before making an Investment in order to determine the appropriateness of the Investment in relation to their financial and investment objectives and in relation to the tax consequences of any such Investment.

Prospective investors should consider the following risks before making an Investment. Any or all of these risks, or other as yet unidentified risks, may have a material adverse effect on the return to investors, and include the following:

No Market – There is no market through which an Investment may be sold, and Trez does not expect that any market will develop in the future. Accordingly, an Investment should only be considered by investors who do not require liquidity. Investments are subject to onerous resale restrictions under applicable securities legislation.

Borrowed Money – Trez does not recommend using borrowed money to finance the purchase of securities as the use of borrowed money involves greater risk than using cash resources only. If you borrow money to purchase securities, your responsibility to repay the loan and pay interest as required by its terms remains the same even if the value of the securities purchased declines.

Retraction Liquidity – Investments may be retractable, meaning that Investors have the right to require Trez to redeem them, upon appropriate advance notice from the investor to Trez. However, different Investments have different restrictions on retraction, and the right of retraction may be suspended under the circumstances.

Absence of Management Rights – Investments do not carry voting rights, and consequently an investor's Investment does not carry with it any right to take part in the control or management of a fund's business.

STATEMENTS

Trez provides quarterly statements to all clients via mail unless arrangements have been made to provide the statement electronically. The quarterly statement includes number of units held, value per unit ($/unit), total value ($) of units held, confirmation of any transactions and other information relevant to an investor. Should a client require an additional statement or updated statement he or she may contact Trez to have one mailed out.

A trade confirmation will be sent to clients after a transaction has occurred, as applicable by law. If you do not object, in writing, to the accuracy of a trade confirmation within 10 days of the date of receipt, Trez will consider the trade confirmation to be accurate.

Clients will receive an annual investment performance report. This report will include the annualized total percentage return for each account held directly with Trez. This report will show the annualized returns since inception and the one, three, five, and ten-year annualized return(s) of your account(s), where applicable.

CUSTODY

Trez's duty of care with respect to the property in your account shall be exercised with the same degree of care that it exercises in the custody of its own property or similar nature.

Computershare Trust Company of Canada acts as trustee for certain mortgage investment entities, which are Trusts, pursuant to the terms and conditions set out in the respective declaration of trust. Computershare Trust Company of Canada is also the custodian of the assets of various mortgages investment entities pursuant to custodial agreements. Computershare Trust Company of Canada acts as custodian for mortgages secured by real property in Canada. The custodian is the company which holds your assets and their involvement provides clients with an extra layer of protection. For mortgages secured by real property in the United States various related party bare trustees of Trez Capital Limited Partnership ("TCLP") and Apex Group Loan Services New York, LLC act as custodian. Your assets are registered in your name and Trez is not authorized to transfer assets into or out of your account nor does it have access to your assets.

Assets held by a custodian may potentially be at risk of loss: (i) if the custodian becomes bankrupt or insolvent; (ii) if there is a breakdown in the custodian's information technology systems; or (iii) due to fraud, willful or reckless misconduct, negligence or error of the custodian or its personnel. Trez completes due diligence with respect to each custodian's reputation, financial stability, relevant internal controls, and ability to deliver custodial services. Trez believes that each custodian's internal system of controls is sufficient to manage risks of loss to our clients in accordance with prudent business practices.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

We value our good relationships with clients. However, we accept that, from time to time, difficulties and misunderstandings may arise. If you are dissatisfied with the service you receive from us, you should take the matter up, in the first instance, with your dealing representative. If the matter is not resolved to your satisfaction, your comments should be referred to our Chief Compliance Officer. If you remain unsatisfied with our response, you can forward a copy of our response and your original complaint to the Ombudsman for Banking Services and Investments (OBSI). OBSI is an independent dispute-resolution service that investigates unresolved disputes at no charge to you. An alternative to the legal system, it may recommend compensation up to $350,000. OBSI can be reached at 1-888-451-4519 or www.obsi.ca, and must be contacted within 180 days of receiving a final response from our Chief Compliance Officer.

CONNECTED ISSUER

Trez, when acting as an exempt market dealer in selling securities of an investment entity formed by Trez, may also be the Manager of that investment entity or an affiliate of the Manager of that investment entity, and consequently, the investment entity may be considered a "connected issuer" of Trez, within the meaning of applicable securities legislation.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

During our normal business activities, Trez has the responsibility to deal fairly, honestly, act in good faith, and act in the best interest of our clients. Trez recognizes that there is potential for conflicts of interest to arise between the interests of our clients and the interests of the firm.

Trez will manage potential conflicts of interest in the best interest of the clients. Trez will take reasonable steps to identify existing and reasonably foreseeable material conflicts of interest and address them in the best interest of the clients. Trez will disclose any material conflicts of interest to the client in a timely manner upon their identification so the client may factor it into their decision-making process. Depending on the circumstance, and in cases where material conflicts of interest cannot be addressed in the best interest of the clients, it will be avoided.

DISCLOSURE STATEMENT FOR CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Under certain circumstances, Trez may deal with you in transactions where the issuer of the securities is a related issuer and connected issuer. As these transactions may create conflicting interests between Trez and yourself, we are informing you of the relevant relationships and connections relating to the transactions.

An entity is considered a "related issuer" if the entity is an influential security holder of Trez, Trez is an influential security holder of the entity, or both Trez and the entity are related issuers of the same entity. A "connected issuer" is a party that distributes securities and has a relationship with Trez that may lead a reasonable prospective purchaser of the securities to question if we and the issuer are independent of each other concerning the distribution of such securities.

As is common in the investment industry, Trez has relationships with both related issuers and connected issuers. Certain principals of Trez will be the principals of the general partners of the entities in which the Trust invests. The issuers will be managed by Trez who acts as the Investment Fund Manager for the issuer. The Trust is a connected issuer and a related issuer of Trez.

When investment companies have multiple related businesses, compensation received from a related party could influence investment recommendations. Trez is in a similar situation as it could recommend investments in a related party. To manage this conflict of interest, Trez and the dealing representative are required to only recommend an investment when it is in the best interest of the client to do so, based on the know-your-client information that has been provided. Additionally, at the time of the account opening or recommendation, we will disclose (e.g., offering memorandum) the fact that the issuer is a related issuer and connected issuer to Trez.

- (e) Investor is Relying on Offering Memorandum Exemption. If the Investor is a resident in any province or territory of Canada it may rely on the receipt of the Offering Memorandum to be exempt from the prospectus requirement. If you are a resident of the following provinces or territories, the following additional requirements apply:

the investment in the Units is suitable; or

(3) $10,000 if the Investor is not an "eligible investor"; or

(iv) the completion of the offer and sale of the Units to the Subscriber as contemplated herein complies in all respects with the applicable securities laws of the International Jurisdiction, and does not trigger:

(A) any obligation to prepare and file a prospectus or similar or other offering document, or to register the Units or to be registered with or to file any report or notice with any of the International Authorities with respect to such offer and sale in the International Jurisdiction; or

(B) any continuous disclosure reporting obligation of the Trust in the International Jurisdiction; and

(C) the Subscriber will, if requested by the Trust, deliver to the Trust a certificate or opinion of local legal counsel licensed to practice law in the International Jurisdiction, which will confirm the matters referred to in subparagraphs (ii), (iii) and (iv) above to the satisfaction of the Trust.

(h) Resale Restrictions. The Investor acknowledges that Units are transferrable subject to compliance with applicable laws and the approval of the Manager, in its absolute discretion. In addition, the Investor is aware of and has been independently advised as to the applicable restrictions on the resale of Units imposed by securities laws in the jurisdiction in which the Investor resides. The Investor is aware of the risks and other characteristics of the Units and of the fact that the Investor will not be able to resell the Units, except in accordance with the constating documents of the Trust and the applicable laws including securities laws. The Trust is not under any obligation to qualify the resale of the Units under a prospectus or assist the Investor in complying with any exemption from the prospectus requirement or resale restrictions set out under applicable securities laws. The Investor acknowledges that any certificates representing the Units will carry a legend stating:

- (i) Irrevocable Offer. The Investor's offer to subscribe for the Units as herein set out is unconditional, irrevocable and non-transferable and has not been induced by any warranties or representations with regard to the present or future value of Units, that any person will resell or repurchase the Units, or that any person will refund the purchase price for the Units.

- (m) Status of Investor. YOU ARE BUYING EXEMPT MARKET SECURITIES

They are called exempt market securities because two parts of securities law do not apply to them. If an issuer wants to sell exempt market securities to you:

- the issuer does not have to give you a prospectus (a document that describes the investment in detail and gives you some legal protections), and
- the securities do not have to be sold by an investment dealer registered with a securities regulatory authority.

There are restrictions on your ability to resell exempt market securities. Exempt market securities are more risky than other securities.

YOU WILL RECEIVE AN OFFERING MEMORANDUM

Read the offering memorandum carefully because it has important information about the issuer and its securities. Keep the offering memorandum because you have rights based on it. Talk to a lawyer for details about these rights.

THE SECURITIES YOU ARE BUYING ARE NOT LISTED

The securities you are buying are not listed on any stock exchange, and they may never be listed. You may never be able to sell these securities.

THE ISSUER OF YOUR SECURITIES IS A NON-REPORTING ISSUER

A non-reporting issuer does not have to publish financial information or notify the public of changes in its business. You may not receive ongoing information about this issuer.

For more information on the exempt market, call your local securities regulatory authority. If you live in British Columbia, contact the British Columbia Securities Commission at (604) 899-6500, (outside the local area, call toll-free 1-800-373-6393), or visit its website at www.bcsc.bc.ca.
